9.4 If there is any threatened seizure of any Service Equipment, or if Customer goes into receivership, administration or liquidation (or the equivalent of any of these) Customer shall:

- (a) notify Connexus immediately;
- (b) draw to the attention of the relevant official that Service Equipment belongs to Connexus and does not form part of Customer's assets; and
- (c) allow Connexus to enter Customer's premises where Service Equipment is stored and take possession of it.

10. FORCE MAJEURE

10.1 Neither party shall be liable to the other party for any delay in the performance of the Contract directly caused by any event beyond its reasonable control ("the Delay Period") provided such party shall have first given the other party written notice within seven days after becoming aware that such delay was likely to occur.

10.2 If a Subcontractor is so delayed in performing its obligations under a contract with Connexus relating to the Services and exercises a contingent right of termination, Connexus shall have the option by written notice to Customer to terminate the part of the Contract so affected and have no liability in respect of it.

10.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Condition shall not affect any right to terminate the Contract under the Condition headed "Termination".

11. RELIEF

Each Party's liability to the other Party under this Contract shall be excluded to the extent that such liability arises as a result of an act or omission of the other Party in relation to that Party's obligations under this Contract.

13. PAYMENT AND INVOICING

13.1 Customer shall pay in full (without any deduction, set-off or counterclaim) each due and valid invoice submitted in accordance with this Condition within fourteen (14) days of the date of each such invoice.

The provisions of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 shall not apply to this Agreement.

13.5 Where a direct debit is unpaid due to insufficient funds a £10.00 administration charge will be included on the next Customer invoice. Where a Customer cancels a direct debit without informing Connexus a further £10.00 administration charge will apply.

13.6 If you do not pay an invoice before the due date, we may instruct a debt collection agency to collect payment from you (including any interest and/or late payment charges) on our behalf. If we engage a debt collection agency to collect your debt, you must pay the reasonable costs we have to pay to such agency, which will be added to the amount you owe.

13.6 Connexus may suspend delivery of the Supplies to Customer during any period in which any amount due under this Contract is more than forty-five (45) days overdue for payment, except where there is a bona fide dispute between the Parties in relation to such sum and Customer notified Connexus of its grounds for such dispute before such sum became due for payment.

13.7 Customer shall notify Connexus in writing of any disputed invoice or charge within 30 days of the relevant invoice date and Customer's failure to do so shall be deemed to operate as a waiver by Customer of any claim relating to the disputed invoice or charge.

14. FINANCIAL SECURITY

14.1 Customer shall provide to Connexus at the Customer's cost such security as Connexus may reasonably require from time to time, in a form acceptable to Connexus, in respect of any amounts which are due or will become due to Connexus under this Contract.

14.2 Failure to provide such security within the time period stipulated by Connexus shall be deemed to be a material breach of the Customer's obligations under this Contract.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

15.1 Subject to the Condition headed 'Intellectual Property', either party receiving Information ("the Recipient") from the other shall not without the other's prior written consent use such Information except for Contract purposes or disclose such Information to any person other than Customer's employees, agents and contractors or Contract Personnel who have a need to know and who are bound by equivalent obligations of confidentiality. Any breach of such obligations by Contract Personnel or Customer's employees, agents or contractors (as the case may be) shall be deemed to be a breach by Connexus or Customer respectively.

15.2 Paragraph 1 of this Condition shall not apply to Information that is:

- (a) published except by a breach of the Contract; or
- (b) lawfully known to the Recipient at the time of disclosure and is not subject to any obligations of confidentiality; or
- (c) lawfully disclosed to the Recipient by a third party without any obligations of confidentiality; or
- (d) replicated by development independently carried out by or for the Recipient by an employee or other person without access to or knowledge of the Information.

15.4 The Recipient may disclose Information where disclosure is required by law, by a court of competent jurisdiction or by a regulatory body with authority over its business, provided that (to the extent it is lawful to do so) the Recipient gives the Party who has provided the Information to it at least seven (7) days' prior notice of the disclosure.

15.5 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party shall produce, issue, publish or otherwise disseminate, or cause to be produced, issued, publish or otherwise disseminated, anything referring to the other party without the prior written consent of the other party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

16.6 Both Parties agree that they will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to guard against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data, having regard to the nature of the data and the processing to be undertaken.

16.7 The Customer will indemnify Connexus against all loss, damages, costs and expenses arising or incurred in respect of:

- (a) any actions, claims or legal proceedings which are brought or threatened against Connexus by a third party where the Customer is in breach of this Condition; and 17.2 Connexus liability under the SLGs shall be the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy in relation to the SLA failure(s) to which they relate.

18. VARIATIONS

18.1 Subject to Paragraph 3 of this Condition, the Contract may only be varied by written agreement between the Parties who shall each respond in writing within ten days of receipt of a proposal for a variation from the other.

provided that any change introduced for the reasons set out in paragraphs (d) to (i) inclusive, above, shall not materially affect the Supplies or the performance of the Supplies except insofar as it is reasonable to do so. Connexus will give the Customer notice of the changes at least 21 days before the changes are to take effect.

19. INTERRUPTION AND SUSPENSION OF SUPPLIES

19.1 Connexus shall be entitled at any time to interrupt the Supplies for the purpose of Connexus or its Subcontractors improving, modifying, suspending, changing, testing, maintaining or repairing the Supplies, without incurring any liability or obligation to the Customer. Connexus will give to the Customer as much notification of any interruption or material changes to the Supplies as practicable in the circumstances and will use its reasonable endeavours to disrupt the Supplies as little as practicable.

19.2 Notwithstanding Paragraph 1 of this Condition, Connexus or its Subcontractors shall be entitled to interrupt the Supplies at any time without notice in cases of emergency.

19.3 Without prejudice to any other rights that Connexus may have under this Contract, Connexus shall be entitled to interrupt the access of the Customer to the Supplies or any part thereof (including the right of disconnection), or cease the Supplies or any part of them, if:

19.5 If in Connexus's reasonable opinion Customer is using any of the Supplies for a fraudulent purpose or is otherwise in breach of its contract with Connexus then:

- (a) Connexus may suspend or terminate the Supplies or part of them; and
- (b) Customer shall pay to Connexus any applicable charges in relation to such suspension, termination or re-commencement of the Supplies as are reasonable in the circumstances.
